Danske Bank is a Nordic bank with strong local roots and bridges to the rest of the world. For more than 145 years, we have helped people and businesses in the Nordics realise their ambitions. Danske Bank has more than 19,000 employees in 16 countries around the world who serve our 3.4 million personal, business and institutional customers. In addition to banking services, we also offer life insurance and pension, mortgage credit, wealth management, real estate and leasing services.

Offer description

We are offering two internship positions in our private banking department in Oslo, presenting a unique opportunity to gain insights from the premium challenger in the Norwegian banking industry.

Private Banking Region Oslo handles private individuals and holding companies with an AUM over 5 million NOK. We are a highly engaged and skilled team of 30 employees, with many years' experience in banking and wealth management.

As an intern, you will assist the leadership team in Private Banking Norway and play an important role in the market research, preparation of analysis and gain valuable insights into this growing industry. You will work in areas such as, but not limited to:

- Costumer portfolio optimization – Business analysis
- Prospecting – Business analysis
- Risk and competitor analysis
- Industry analysis – Analysis of target industries

In our segment we work with some of the most influential Norwegian business owners and industries. This gives us an opportunity to gain unique insights into Norwegian business life.

What we offer:

We will present you with a unique opportunity to kick-start your career within wealth management and gain valuable insight from several areas of our business. You will be challenged and have your own tasks, enabling you to contribute as a part of our team. You can expect to expand your knowledge of the private banking and wealth management industry, while developing your analytical and communication skills.

Qualifications:

You are a top performer of your class and have a passion for the finance industry and high ambitions for the future. More so, you have a special interest in Wealth Management and is highly motivated to learn more.

As a person, you have strong work ethics, the ability to rapidly adopt new responsibilities and work independently. We encourage analytical minds that will ask questions and dive into new challenges every day to apply.

As we will contact candidates on a continuous basis, please send short application and CV as soon as possible.
